Here are some prompts to assist you as you prepare your essay.

1. Make a list of the things you want to accomplish— and why.
2. Examples--Who inspired/challenged you in high school - teachers, parents, older student, etc.
3. If there is a specific situation that inspired or challenged you— explaining the situation will make your essay more interesting and coming from the heart not just the brain. You may have more than one situation so your introduction can be general and then give specifics of the people and events in the second paragraph.
4. The conclusion can then be about seeing yourself as a college student and thankful for the help you received in high school.
